

OFFICE OF THE PROVOST

REGENTS PROFESSOR AWARD

Mark Ford

Instrumental Studies

Mark Ford teaches percussion at The University of North Texas College of Music, and he is a Past-President of the Percussive Arts Society. A recognized leader in percussion education, Ford is also a marimba artist and coordinator of one of the largest percussion programs in the United States at UNT. Ford is an active performer and he has been featured in concerts throughout the United States, Europe, South America, Australia and Asia. He serves as the Artistic Director for the Drum Fest International Marimba Competition in Opole, Poland, and he has composed numerous works for percussion, wind ensemble and orchestra.

