Student Conduct & Community Standards

- The Code of Student Conduct defines prohibited behavior, how reports of misconduct are investigated, and what responses the Dean of Students provides for students found responsible for violations
 - Applies to conduct on and off campus and conduct in between semesters.
- Students are accountable to both the law (police & courts) and University policy
 - Students may also be required to follow policies beyond the Code (e.g., residents must abide by University housing policies, if you park on campus you must follow parking regulations, etc.)
- Conduct process is intended to be educational and ensure the University is an environment where everyone can succeed
