

OFFICE OF THE PROVOST &
DIVISION OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
Academic Integrity

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY OFFICE

Academic Integrity Officers: Dr. Karen Weiller-Abels, Dr. Tracy Everbach

Academic Integrity Administrator: Olivia Martinez

Academic Integrity Graduate Assistant: Linda Jenkins

What resources does our organization provide to support student success?

- Academic Integrity Matters Canvas Course
- Academic Integrity Conferences to assess student needs and address violations. This is an opportunity to determine if students need support or other resources at UNT.
- Plagiarism and AI (Artificial Intelligence) detection through TurnItIn.
- We provide support and guidance for students and faculty in addressing academic integrity violations.
- We provide detailed information on our process, details on how to file cases, and faculty resources including guides on how to talk to students at <https://vpaa.unt.edu/ss/integrity>.

When should students access these resources?

Students access these resources after they have been referred to us. Canvas resources can also be used campus wide to benefit students and prevent violations from occurring.

Where should students go to access these resources?

Our website links a variety of resources for students to help them avoid plagiarism and other academic integrity violations. We recommend students visit the Learning Center, Writing Center, Math Lab, or Libraries for help with their coursework.

How can faculty engage with the resources and services you provide?

- Canvas resources can be accessed via Canvas Commons and materials that may be embedded in any Canvas course.
- Our website also lists resources on campus, information about our process, an academic integrity quiz that can be embedded in Canvas, and more.
- We have an online presentation request form. These presentations can be for anyone in the UNT community. We would be happy to come talk with your students, department, or faculty group about academic integrity.
- TurnItIn resources are available through Canvas, and you can contact our office for questions about student submissions, metadata, artificial intelligence, interpreting TII reports, and more.

Academic Integrity Decision Tree for Instructors

COUNSELING AND TESTING SERVICES

What resources does our organization provide to support student success?

- Individual Counseling
- Group Counseling
- 24/7 Crisis Services
- Workshops/Drop-in Groups
- Couples Counseling

When should students access these resources?

- Students should seek counseling services when they are experiencing stress, anxiety, depression, trauma, and any other mental health concerns.

Where should students go to access these resources?

- Location: Chestnut Hall 311
- Website: Studentcounseling.unt.edu
- Togetherall Online Peer Support:
<https://account.v2.togetherall.com/register/student>
- Instagram: UNT_Counseling

How can faculty engage with the resources and services you provide?

- Attend Counselor Consultation time held weekly in the Faculty Lounge and on Zoom
- Request classroom presentations
- Call CTS directly to consult

SCAN TO JOIN FOR FREE TODAY

Join Togetherall Today

Maybe you are feeling overwhelmed, struggling socially or just not feeling like yourself?

Togetherall is a safe, anonymous, online peer to peer community for mental health support.

FREE to all students

16+

A safe place to express yourself and support each other.

Visit togetherall.com

UNT CTS SERVICES

COUNSELING AND TESTING

SERVICES

- Individual Counseling
- Group Counseling
- 24/7 Crisis Services
- Workshops/Drop-in Groups
- Couples Counseling

Scan the QR code to visit our Website!

Starting college can be both an exciting and scary time for students. We recognize that UNT students need help during this difficult transition and are being impacted by stress, anxiety, trauma, and much more. Our staff is here to help you and navigate students through those hard times.

POTENTIAL GROUPS WE OFFER:

- Trauma Recovery
- Art Therapy
- QTBIPOC Support
- Grief Relief
- Graduate Student Group
- International Student Group
- First Gen Student Group
- Community Conversations

Groups and workshops are a great way to get to know yourself and others in a supportive and therapeutic way. Many have joined groups to learn new ways to cope, to challenge social anxiety, and to meet folks who better understand them.

NEED IMMEDIATE SUPPORT?

Denton County MHMR Crisis line: 1-800-762-0157
National Suicide Prevention Hotline: 1-800-273-8255
CTS Crisis Support: 940-565-2741 Press 1 after prompt

DEAN OF STUDENTS

What resources does our organization provide to support student success?

- CARE Team
- Early Alert Response System
- Conduct
- Fallen Eagles
- Food Pantry
- Housing Insecurity
- Mean Green Gowns for Grads
- S.O.S. (Seeking Options & Solutions)
- Student Complaints
- Survivor Advocate
- Withdrawals
- Academic Rights

Where should students go to access these resources?

University Union, Ste. 409

Deanofstudents@unt.edu

<https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/dean-of-students>

(940)565-2648

LEARNING CENTER

What resources does our organization provide to support student success?

Tutoring

- Supplemental Instruction (SI)
- One-on-one tutoring
- Math Lab
- Academic Coaching
- Learning 101 Series (Academic workshops on varying topics)
- Don't Cancel that Class
- Graduate student resources

When should students access these resources?

Students should access our resources early and often. Being proactive in getting support is essential to student success.

Where should students go to access these resources?

Sage 170 (main office)

Sage 130 (Math Lab)

learningcenter@unt.edu

940-369-7006

How can faculty engage with the resources and services you provide?

We encourage faculty to engage as much as possible. Referrals, questions, and collaboration is welcomed from faculty to ensure we are supporting them and the students as best we can.

PROMOTING AND PARTNERING WITH

THE LEARNING CENTER

LEARNING CENTER SERVICES

Our mission is to provide programs that enhance learning and facilitate academic excellence for all UNT students.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Academic coaching, Learning 101 Workshops, study halls and more!

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION (SI)

Peer-facilitated group study sessions in a variety of historically challenging courses.

TUTORING SERVICES

One-on-one appointments, drop-in tutoring and asynchronous support.

MATH LAB

Drop-in tutoring for math and math-related science courses. Located in Sage Hall 130.

Q A student is behind on assignments and seems to be struggling with time management

A Refer the student to Academic Coaching or one of our many Academic support time management workshops.

Q A student failed their first exam and seems like they could benefit from regularly scheduled review

A Refer the student to Supplemental Instruction for weekly group facilitated study sessions.

Q A student is struggling with new concepts and retaining information from previous units

A Refer the student to the Math Lab or Tutoring Services to review difficult concepts and prepare for exams.

WHEN TO REFER STUDENTS TO THE LEARNING CENTER?

WHAT CLASSES ARE SUPPORTED?

The Learning Center supports a variety of courses every semester for more information and an updated list scan the QR Code or visit

<https://bit.ly/LCCourseSupport>

SCAN ME

ENCOURAGE STUDENTS TO JOIN THE LC CANVAS

Add the following to your syllabus and/or as a canvas announcement

The UNT Learning Center is your one-stop-shop for academic success! Click the link below to enroll in the Learning Center Canvas course today, for up-to-date information on services, events, and study resources.

<https://unt.instructure.com/enroll/NEGANT>

UNT

OFFICE OF THE PROVOST & DIVISION OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
The Learning Center

STRATEGIC RETENTION INITIATIVES

What resources does our organization provide to support student success?

First Year Seminar, Summer Bridge Programs, Workshops on Strategies for Becoming Highly Effective College Students

Early Start

Early Start is a 5-week summer residential program that offers newly admitted first-year students an opportunity to earn up to six (6) hours of graded credit before the Fall semester begins.

MARTIAL Eagles

The UNT Male Alliance for a Rigorous, Transformative and Interdisciplinary Approach to Learning (MARTIAL) is a living learning community of young men who share an interest in pursuing academic success while at the University of North Texas.

Summer Scholars

Summer Scholars is a program for returning UNT students who are committed to improving their academic foundation here at UNT. Students will participate in our virtual program over the 5-week 1 summer session and work with academic peer mentors as they participate in weekly workshops.

When should students access these resources?

Summer School Session Before First Year Enrollment (Early Start)

First Summer Session After Sophomore, Junior or Senior Year (Summer Scholars)

Beginning in First Year and Continuing Until Graduation

Where should students go to access these resources?

240 Sage Hall

<http://vpaa.unt.edu/sri>

How can faculty engage with the resources and services you provide?

Faculty May Offer to Give Guest Lectures/Conversations to Students on Various Topics (Building Productive Relationships with Faculty, Suggested Strategies for Studying/Test-Taking in Specific Disciplines, etc.).

Also, faculty may request consultations on strategies and best practices for effective classroom engagement of students.

UNT WORKPLACE INCLUSION AND SUSTAINABLE EMPLOYMENT (WISE) EMBRACING NEURODIVERSE GROUPS IN ACADEMICS AND GAINFUL EMPLOYMENT (ENGAGE)

What resources does our organization provide to support student success?

WISE supports transition-aged students, Community Rehabilitation Programs, and those working towards competitive, integrative employment. ENGAGE provides one-on-one support to UNT students that are Neurodivergent to reach their academic, vocational, social, and personal goals. We educate students about the resources on campus and how to utilize them with a neurodiverse lens.

When should students access these resources?

Students that are interested in the ENGAGE program will need to go through the ENGAGE admissions process and apply when we re-open the application for the next academic year. Students are encouraged to check the website regularly in case it opens earlier. Interested students can meet individually with ENGAGE staff to learn more information or they can attend Eagle Chat, a recurring Thursday night neurodiversity meeting that anyone is welcome to attend.

Where should students go to access these resources?

For more information about UNT's Neurodiversity Initiative, please visit us at <https://neurodiversity.unt.edu/>. For more information about WISE and the programs they provide, please visit us at <https://wise.unt.edu/>. For more information about ENGAGE and the admissions process, please visit our website at <https://neurodiversity.unt.edu/unt-engage>. (Attached is the current NeuroNet program flyer for students)

How can faculty engage with the resources and services you provide?

ENGAGE students may opt-in to share with you that they are in the program in the Student Health Information that is sent in addition to their Letters of Accommodation through the Office of Disability Access (ODA). If students have opted in, they will be encouraged by ENGAGE staff to send an introductory email with their direct coordinator attached. Faculty are also welcome to contact our offices either at engage@unt.edu or via phone at (940) 565-4000 and ask to speak to our director Lucy Gafford or a program coordinator.

If faculty are interested in receiving neurodiversity training or joining the Neurodiversity Professional Network (a UNT Employee Resource Group), please visit our site at <https://neurodiversity.unt.edu/faculty-and-staff-support> for links to the Bridge training and how to get in contact with us for presentations and collaborations.

NEURONET

Eagle Chat is a weekly peer support group for neurotypical and neurodivergent students. Eagle Chat is held in Bruce Hall 5:30-6:30 every Thursday

UNT Empowering Personal Interactions in the Community (EPIC) provides organized social, philanthropic, and learning opportunities for neurotypical and neurodivergent adults ages 18+

UNTEPIC@unt.edu | <https://neurodiversity.unt.edu/what-epic>

UNT Speech & Hearing Center Social Skills Group

Provides social communication training and intervention through individual and group services.

Stacy.Nunnelee@unt.edu

<https://tcpah.unt.edu/speech-and-hearing-center>

UNT ENGAGE (Embracing Neurodiverse Groups in Academics and Gainful Employment)

Serves neurodivergent students enrolled at UNT with reaching their academic, vocational, social, and personal goals through person-centered planning and individualized services.

engage@unt.edu

UNT Wellness and Employment Learning Lab (WELL) Clinic provides individual and group counseling, vocational evaluations, and adjunctive therapy services to students. These services are provided by Rehabilitation Counseling graduate students, who are working on their practicum.

940-565-3598 | UNTWELL@unt.edu

<https://hps.unt.edu/rhs/untwell>

