

UNT Foundation Community Engagement Award Call for Nominations

Award Description:

The UNT Foundation Community Engagement Award recognizes UNT faculty whose careers are marked by sustained activities that systematically and effectively advance mutual university-community engagement, successfully address important community issues through collaborative initiatives, and create intellectual products respected by peers within and beyond the academy. UNT's Community Engagement recipients are those individuals who have the sensitivity to understand and work across organizational cultures and boundaries; the leadership to build bridges among community institutions and to make university and community institutions intelligible to and supportive of each other; and the capacity to develop new and productive projects and relationships that embody the university's central commitment to its community engagement mission. The annual award carries a one-time $5,000 payment and an engraved commemorative gift.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must have served the University of North Texas for a minimum of five (5) years.
- Must be a full-time tenure-track /tenured faculty member in good standing at the time of the nomination.
- Must demonstrate sustained exemplary community engagement and have a minimum of two distinct engagement initiatives with actively involved community partners that achieve multiple successful outcomes.

Nomination Procedure:

A faculty member who meets the above criteria may be nominated by any UNT faculty or university employee with in-depth knowledge of the accomplishments of the nominee. Self-nominations will not be accepted. Nominators should inform nominees that they are being nominated and may solicit their assistance in preparing the nomination materials. The nomination dossier must be submitted as a single PDF document in the following order:

- Table of contents
- A listing of and contact information on community partners, outcomes and impacts achieved, and intellectual products produced (i.e., research, creative works, teaching, service and/or professional practice)
- Two supporting letters from two community partners associated with different community engagement projects reporting the initiatives, community outcomes and impacts produced, and community perception of the nominee's roles and effectiveness in achieving them
- Complete curriculum vita

Submission Process:

The nominator should submit the nomination packet via the Salute to Faculty Excellence Awards Nomination portal by 5:00 p.m. on October 15, 2021. Here is the link: <https://vpaa.unt.edu/nominate>. If you have any questions please contact Annie Garcia at Annie.Garcia@unt.edu.

Selection Process:

An award selection committee, appointed by the Provost and President, will represent the faculty at large, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee, and the UNT Foundation. The Associate Vice Provost for Faculty will serve as the non-voting chair of the committee. The 2022 UNT Foundation Eminent Faculty Award will be presented at the Salute to Faculty Excellence awards and ceremony in the Spring.
